Starting School

Starting School Workshop

Starting school is always a stressful time for children and families. The “Starting School” workshop will give you ideas on how to prepare for this transition and ease the stress of entering Kindergarten or starting in a new school. <https://youtu.be/vS0ruUDW7ZE>

Worried About Starting School

While you can't always know what your child is thinking, chances are he is both excited and nervous about starting school. <http://connectability.ca/2010/09/23/worried-about-starting-school/>

Facilitating Friendships between Children

Before your child begins school you may want to provide him with opportunities to spend time with other children his age. This is the best way to help him develop the social skills he will need to make friends and get along with his classmates in kindergarten.
